§ 727(a), (ii) DIRECTING THE DEBTOR TO TURN OVER THE VALUE
OF UNAUTHORIZED POST-PETITION TRANSFERS, AND (iii)
DIRECTING THE DEBTOR TO TURN OVER THE VALUE OF ESTATE
PROPERTY WHICH HE UNLAWFULLY CONVERTED

Angela G. Tese-Milner (the "Trustee"), as chapter 7 trustee of the estate of Daniel Gordon (the "Debtor"), the above-captioned debtor, by her special litigation counsel, Fox Rothschild LLP, as and for her complaint (the "Complaint") seeking a judgment (i) denying the Debtor's discharge, (ii) directing the Debtor to turn over the value of unauthorized post-petition transfers, and (iii) directing the Debtor to turnover the value of estate property which he unlawfully converted, alleges, upon information and belief, as follows:

NATURE OF CASE

1. A discharge of a debtor's debts (which in this case would be in excess of $41 million) is extraordinary relief that should only be afforded to the honest but unfortunate debtor. The Debtor is anything but honest and his discharge should be denied for myriad reasons. The Debtor has, among other things, (i) failed to disclose under oath assets totaling in excess of $3 million, (ii) failed to disclose under oath insider transfers totaling in excess of $3 million, (iii) made numerous false oaths and accounts in connection with his bankruptcy filings, (iv) concealed, mutilated or failed to keep recorded information from which his financial condition and business transactions might be ascertained, and (v) refused to turn over books, records and other financial documents as ordered by this Court and demanded by the Trustee.

2. Additionally, the Debtor, through his unauthorized use of post-petition transfers, has used several insider corporations in an attempt to convert property belonging to his bankruptcy estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 541.

3. This adversary proceeding is brought pursuant to (i) 11 U.S.C. § 727 and Rule 7001(4) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), in order to obtain a judgment denying the Debtor's discharge and (ii) 11 U.S.C. § 549 to avoid and set aside certain unauthorized post-petition transactions.

JURISDICTION

4. This Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding by virtue of 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and (b), and 1334(b).

5. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2)(A) (E) (J) and (O).

6. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409(a) because this proceeding arises in a case under the Title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) pending in this district.

PARTIES

7. The Trustee is a member of the panel of private trustees established by the United States Trustee pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 586. The Trustee maintains offices at Tese & Milner, One Minetta Lane, New York, New York 10012.

8. The Debtor is an individual who resides at 151 East 85th Street, #10C, New York, New York 10028.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL CLAIMS

9. On October 19, 2009 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.

10. Subsequent to the filing of the Debtor’s bankruptcy petition, Angela G. Tese-Milner was appointed interim chapter 7 trustee in this case. On November 17, 2009, Ms. Tese-Milner presided over the meeting of creditors in the Debtor’s case and, by operation of law, became the permanent trustee of the Debtor’s estate. Ms. Tese-Milner is currently serving in that capacity.

11. On November 22, 2009, the Debtor filed his original bankruptcy schedules (collectively, the “Schedules”) with this Court and verified the contents of the Schedules under penalty of perjury [DE 22].

AllStar transferred portions of the Urban Muse Payment as follows: (i) on or about November 16, 2009, AllStar transferred a portion of the Urban Muse Payment, totaling $1,196,000, to Klingenberg and Associates for the benefit of RC Sooner Holdings, LLC, an insider corporation and various other related insider entities, and (ii) on or about December 11, 2009, AllStar transferred another portion of the Urban Muse Payment, totaling $176,893, to Remyco, Inc. for the benefit of the same insider corporations (collectively, these transfers are referred to as the “Post-Petition Transfers”).

86. The Post-Petition Transfers are directly traceable to the Wachovia Transfer.

87. The Post-Petition Transfers were not authorized by the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Court.

88. Based upon the foregoing, the Post-Petition Transfers, respectively, should each be avoided and set aside, and the value of such transfers should be returned to the Debtor’s estate. The Trustee is entitled to recover from the Debtor an amount to be determined at trial that is not less than $1,372,893.00, plus applicable interest from the date of this Complaint.

COUNT IX
(Conversion)

89. The Trustee repeats and re-alleges the allegations contained in each of the preceding paragraphs of this Complaint as if the same were fully set forth herein at length.

90. The Urban Muse Payment is directly traceable to the Debtor’s pre-petition assets. Therefore, the Urban Muse Payment represented an asset of the Debtor’s bankruptcy estate.

91. The Debtor unlawfully exercised dominion and control over the Urban Muse Payment when he directed such proceeds be used to make the Post-Petition Transfers. As a result, the Debtor’s estate has been unable to recover property that was required to be turned over to the Trustee pursuant to Section 542 of the Bankruptcy Code. Under these circumstances, the Debtor’s acts constitute conversion of the Urban Muse Payment.

92. Based upon the foregoing, the Debtor should be directed to turn over to the Trustee the full amount of the Urban Muse Payment in an amount to be determined at trial that is not less than $2,000,000.00, plus applicable interest from the date of this Complaint.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

86. The Trustee's investigation into the Debtor's assets and financial affair is on-going. The Trustee anticipates that she will discover additional violations by the Debtor of the various provisions of Section 727(a) of the Bankruptcy Code as well as other claims. Accordingly, the Trustee hereby expressly reserves the right to amend and/or supplement either the factual bases and/or the relief requested by this Complaint.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment (i) against Debtor denying his discharge, (ii) avoiding the Post-Petition Transfers as unauthorized post-petition transfers, pursuant to Sections 549 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code, and directing the Debtor to turn over to the Trustee the full value of the Post-Petition Transfers, plus applicable interest, (iii) directing the Debtor to turn over to the Trustee the full value of the Urban Muse Payment, plus applicable interest, and (iv) granting the Trustee such other and further relief as is just.
